Dear Parents/Carers

Re: Everton FC Reading Challenge

In preparation for World Book Day, Everton in the Community are launching an exciting 'Reading for Pleasure' initiative.

The 'Reading Bingo Challenge' allows children to immerse themselves in new types of literature with the challenge of undertaking this in a variety of locations. Presented on the 'Bingo Challenge' card are 14 different coloured football shirts. Every time your child completes a challenge on a shirt, they are working their way to be entered for both individual and school prizes by scoring a goal. For every 5 goals (5 books) your child scores, our school will be entered to win an activity day from Everton in the Community (e.g. Glow in the Dark Dodgeball or a day of football coaching for the school). There will also be prizes for children who have read in adventurous locations and those who have tried to complete the most challenges.

The competition will close on the 5th March (World Book Day), and we will then have one week to send across your child's bingo card before results are released (week commencing 25th March) and winners announced.

In order to promote the reading taking place we ask that you share adventures with @eitc and @ReadingatLLP, using the hashtags #PLPrimaryStars and #efcreaders.

Yours faithfully
