Faith in Action

Abdullah in 3MT has put his Faith into Action this week by helping to teach the children all about the Islamic faith. He enjoyed telling us about the Qu'ran, how muslims pray and the importance of the mosque. Thank you Abdullah, your enthusiasm helped us all to understand your faith.

Congratulations

Well done Erin whose team won in the cup final and also came runners up in the league!

Well done to Alice who competed in her last class Feis (Irish dance competition), placing 1st, 2nd or 3rd in everything she competed in.

Two of our year 6 girls, Phoebe and Bella, took part in their first netball tournament last Saturday. They played eight games of netball on a very hot day, making their team, their coaches and their families very proud. We are proud of them too! Well done, girls.

On Monday our footballers travelled down to Watford to play in the Premier League Primary Stars Finals representing Liverpool Football Club. What a fantastic time we all had! The boys were brilliant and made memories for a lifetime. A special mention to Shay for only conceding one goal in the full competition and our player of the tournament Andreas. Hopefully we will get to play in this fabulous tournament next year.

On Thursday afternoon we took some more footballers to play in the Knowsley Champion of Champions Finals in Halewood. We reached the semi final of this competition (after winning our quarter final on a penalty shoot out) where we were eventually beaten by the tournament winners. Some very impressive performances especially from Harry M and Harry H in Year 5.

Well done to Sofia who placed 1st in the taekwondo championship.
